

Frank L. Crandall

SPRINGVILLE — Frank L. Crandall, 81, died April 12, 1989 at his home in Springville, Utah.

He was born the son of Myron Edgar Crandall Sr. and Dora Guymon Crandall on April 10, 1908, in Springville, Utah. Frank was one of nine children.

In the year of 1934 he and his sweetheart, Naomi Henrichsen were married in Heber, Frank L. Crandall Utah. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

He was an active member of the LDS Church, holding the office of High Priest at the time of his death. He held various positions of church service. He had a great love and pride for the community of Springville of which he was a life long resident.

As a young man, age twelve, Frank began working at the Springville Cannery and on the family farm. Later he was a highway construction supervisor, working in Utah, Wyoming, and Nevada. During World War II, he was a Foreman at Remington Arms Plant. He then became a maintenance supervisor in the Open Hearth Dept., US Steel, Geneva Works. He received many awards and recognitions for his contributions during his 28 years of service at Geneva, earning the respect of his co-workers. He retired from Geneva in 1970, and enjoyed 19 years of retirement.

He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. Frank was known for his love of family, neighbors, and church. He enjoyed gardening and golf at his winter residence in St. George, Utah.

Frank was a great fisherman, and enjoyed many family activities at his summer cabin in the mountains of Fish Lake, Utah.

He is survived by his wife, Naomi, of Springville. One daughter, Donna Jean Fullmer, son-in-law Dr. Clark E. Fullmer, of Springville. One brother, I.R. (Irwin) Crandall, Las Vegas. Two sisters, Rilla C. Embree, Portland, Oregon, and Louise Snow, Springville. Grandchildren: Tricia F. Barry, Kent Barry, Mark and Wendy Fullmer, Linda and David Millet, Tom and Heidi Fullmer, Bonnie Fullmer, and Nicole Fullmer. Great Grandchildren: Aubrey Anne Fullmer, Meghan Fullmer, and Nathan Fullmer.

Funeral services will be Saturday, April 15, 1989, at Wheeler Mortuary, Springville, Utah, at 11 a.m.

Friends may call at the Mortuary Friday evening from 6 to 8 p.m., and Saturday 1 hour prior to services.

Burial will be at The Springville Evergreen Cemetery.

(Paid obituary)

Fred Crandall

Fred Lewis Crandall, Sr., 87, died Friday, March 17, 1989, in Santa Maria, Calif., of natural causes.

He was born Sept. 12, 1901, in Springville, to Myron Newton and Agnes Lewis Crandall. He married Margaret Alma McElrath, Aug. 19, 1927, in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. She died June 14, 1984.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He had served a mission to Germany, 1923-1926. In 1972 to 1973 he and his wife served together in the Florida-Alabama Mission.

He was raised in Provo. From 1950 to 1980 he lived in Southern California and then moved to Springville. In 1985 he returned to Provo and in 1986 he moved to Santa Maria, Calif. to live with his son. He was an avid fisherman and musician.

He is survived by two sons, Dr. Fred Lewis Crandall, Jr., Santa Maria, Calif.; Richard M. Crandall, Ventura, Calif.; eight grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Camille Bennion, Provo.

Funeral will be Wednesday, 10 a.m. at Berg Mortuary, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call one hour prior to service.

Burial in the Springville Evergreen Cemetery, Springville.

George Kent Crandall

Carla B. Crandall

GUNNISON—Carla Dean Barney Crandall, age 54, passed away December 19, 1991. She was born October 27, 1937 in Escalante, Utah to Royal and Lillie May Moosman Barney. She married George Kent Crandall June 24, 1954 in the Mantle LDS temple; he died January 5, 1988.

Survived by one son and three daughters, Michael Kent, Hillsboro, Oregon; Sue Ann Simkins, Centerfield; Julie Nelson, Delta; Terry Jean Lindsay, Provo; mother; 16 grandchildren; brothers and sisters, Juonita Felix, Springville; Cheryl Clayson, Pocatello, Idaho; Evelyn Sullivan, Provo; Kay Barney, Las Vegas, Nev.; Howard Barney, Spanish Fork; Nina Reid, Jean Brown, Clair Barney, and Fern Barber, all Springville; Terry Barney, San Diego, Calif.

Funeral services will be Monday, January 23, 11 a.m., Gunnison Stake Center, where friends may call Sunday evening 6-8 p.m. and Monday 9:30-10:30 a.m. prior to services. Burial, Springville Evergreen Cemetery under direction of Springer-Turner Funeral Home in Solano. N 12/21 T 12/21

Carla B. Crandall

GUNNISON—Carla Dean Barney Crandall, age 54, passed away December 19, 1991. She was born October 27, 1937 in Escalante, Utah to Royal and Lillie May Moosman Barney. She married George Kent Crandall June 24, 1954 in the Mantle LDS temple; he died January 5, 1988.

Survived by one son and three daughters, Michael Kent, Hillsboro, Oregon; Sue Ann Simkins, Centerfield; Julie Nelson, Delta; Terry Jean Lindsay, Provo; mother; 16 grandchildren; brothers and sisters, Juonita Felix, Springville; Cheryl Clayson, Pocatello, Idaho; Evelyn Sullivan, Provo; Kay Barney, Las Vegas, Nev.; Howard Barney, Spanish Fork; Nina Reid, Jean Brown, Clair Barney, and Fern Barber, all Springville; Terry Barney, San Diego, Calif.

Funeral services will be Monday, January 23, 11 a.m., Gunnison Stake Center, where friends may call Sunday evening 6-8 p.m. and Monday 9:30-10:30 a.m. prior to services. Burial, Springville Evergreen Cemetery under direction of Springer-Turner Funeral Home in Solano. In lieu of flowers, family suggests donations to the University of Utah Athletic Scholarship Fund. 581-8171 N 12/21 T 12/21

Condie Crandall

Gibson Condie Crandall, 85, of Mapleton, died Monday, August 24, 1992.

He was born July 16, 1907 in Springville, the only son of John Jr. and Esther Mae Condie Crandall. He lived all of his life in the Springville-Mapleton area and was a graduate of Springville High School. He worked as a mechanic and welder for local contractors and served in the U.S. Army during WWII.

He was a high priest in the LDS Church and served his Father in Heaven faithfully with many hours of service.

Condie married Fern Ann Broadhead on April 30, 1934 in Provo, and their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

He is survived by his wife of Mapleton; one son, John Crandall; daughter-in-law, Hope; and two grandchildren, Shad and Shannon. He enjoyed his two grandchildren who lived next door to him.

He was an avid outdoorsman and spent many hours in the mountains hunting and fishing. He retired from the Nebo School District as the last custodian of the original Mapleton school building. His presence will be missed by his family, but we know Condie is where he wants to be now ... without suffering the infirmities of mortal life. Thanks Grampa, we love you!

Funeral services will be Thursday, August 27, at 11 a.m., Mapleton White Church, corner of Main and Maple streets. Friends may call Wednesday, 6 to 8 p.m. at the Wheeler Mortuary, 211 E. 200 South, Springville, and one hour prior to services at the church Thursday. Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Keetley

Harold Crandall

Dr. Harold Crandall, formerly of Provo, died Monday, Jan. 1, 1990, in Plymouth, Mich.

He was born Feb. 10, 1904, in Provo, to Hyrum Burgess and Ruby Christensen Crandall. He married Cleo Shepherd, Nov. 5, 1935, in Richfield. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. She died.

He graduated from the University of Southern California in dentistry in 1926. He practiced in Southern Utah towns and also practiced in Salina and Provo. He retired in 1970.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and a member of Lions Club and Elks Club. He was a member of the Tabernacle Choir from 1922 to 1923.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles (Darla) Jackson, Houston, Texas; Mrs. Tom (Myrna) Jackson, Taylorsville; Mrs. Sidney (Cynthia) Russell, Plymouth, Mich.; 10 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; one sister, Hazel Crandall, Los Angeles, Calif. He was preceded in death by one son, David Harold Crandall.

Funeral will be Friday, 2 p.m. at Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call Thursday 6-8 p.m. or Friday one hour prior to service.

Burial will be in the Eastlawn Memorial Hills, Provo.

Dentist

Harold Crandall

Dr. Harold Crandall, formerly of Provo, died Monday, Jan. 1, 1990, in Plymouth, Mich.

He was born Feb. 10, 1904, in Provo, to Hyrum Burgess and Ruby Christensen Crandall. He married Cleo Shepherd, Nov. 5, 1935, in Richfield. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. She died.

He graduated from the University of Southern California in dentistry in 1926. He practiced in Southern Utah towns and also practiced in Salina and Provo. He retired in 1970.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and a member of Lions Club and Elks Club. He was a member of the Tabernacle Choir from 1922 to 1923.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Charles (Darla) Jackson, Houston, Texas; Mrs. Tom (Myrna) Jackson, Taylorsville; Mrs. Sidney (Cynthia) Russell, Plymouth, Mich.; 10 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; one sister, Hazel Crandall, Los Angeles, Calif. He was preceded in death by one son, David Harold Crandall.

Funeral will be Friday, 2 p.m. at Berg Drawing Room Chapel, 185 E. Center, Provo, where friends may call Thursday 6-8 p.m. or Friday one hour prior to service.

Burial will be in the Eastlawn Memorial Hills, Provo.